Community Book Drive

By donating books you can play a part in bringing the joy of reading to hundreds of people who might otherwise have no access to books.

What: New and slightly used books for children of all ages. The book donations will be given to the women and children of the Battered Women’s Shelter and the children of Covenant House.

Why: The objective of the book drive is to provide young children and teenagers with access to literature and to celebrate reading. Every child deserves to read and not only to maintain a suitable education but also to experience the joy has that booked offer. Giving books and expanding libraries is so much fun!!!

Deadline: All donations are due by March 1, 2017. Thank you for your help!!
Donations can be dropped off at Carter Law Group LLC, 9217 Jefferson Hwy, NOLA 70123 or dropped off at the Isidore Newman Middle School office.
